“SOMEDAY, YOU WILL BE OLD ENOUGH TO READ FAIRY TALES AGAIN.” C.S. LEWIS

Come join us on this spiritual journey, as we explore the light and dark of Fairy Tales in a search for resilience and meaning. These tales have been providing solace and spiritual guidance to us for millenia. Before they were relegated to the nursery, they were told by adults to adults in every culture and every age. They have been in the business of hidden meanings for a long, long time.

Under the veneer of Fantasy, Magic and Romance, Fairy Tales are really stories about Frustration, Grief and Despair. They tell us again and again about the power of Hope and the enduring mystery of Grace. Come find the reason these stories have survived and uncover the deeply spiritual role they still play in human life.

Patty Kane Horrigan is a writer, teacher and counselor. Through years of Fairy Tale study and exploration she has found the enchantment, consolation and deeper meaning that lie within those stories. Her Fairy Tale classes help others to share in that magic and find the deeply personal riches buried within that realm.

Attendees can choose to come for the full weekend or Saturday only
